Citizens Argue At City Council Meet

Around the Square

We haven't mentioned it before, because each week we keep thinking they'll change the sign, but according to last reports it still reads the same: "No Parking!"

It was pointed out the asphalt quite some time ago in the area by the Post Office, a busy place by day and a spot that has been attractive to some at night.

Postmaster Eddie Robertson, who has taken a bit of kidding about it, has laughed it off good naturedly. He says: "It gets results—in both departments!" (And why not!)

Diane Armstrong, local glamour gal of magazines, movies, and the recent "Rose Parade," stood in line last Saturday evening at one of the town's meat markets. She was wearing a slacks suit, a bandana round her hair, and no make-up. She still was so beautiful that we couldn't imagine a glamour less like that ordering anything less than birds' wings under glass. Made us a little self-conscious with our order of a half pound of hamburger.

What did Diane ask for? Five pounds of dog food! Made us feel real folksy. It also made us wonder just how king-sized those two hounds of hers must be!

Also in the supper-time line was Virginia Sayles. The night before we had seen her undressing one of the dummies in the display window of her women's shop. It had been the discreet evening hour of 6:15, when most of the downtown passers-by had retired. She was in the process of stripping the waxen female, when a gay blade, stopping for a second look, gave forth with a whistle that was distinctly well-branded.

What's her name? he called. "And telephone number!" But Virginia topped him when she called back: "Go way, boy! This gal won't talk!"

Dorothy Hall, whom many Sierra Madreans remember from the Francis Scott Shop days (before it was bought by Oleta de Campo, who sold it to Virginia Sayles), journeyed last week from her present address, 2555 W. Fifth in Los Angeles, to Sierra Madre in hopes of finding residence here again. During the noon hour Tuesday she stopped at the News Stand for lunch and was surprised to find herself seated next to a man she knows only as Mr. Menninger.

Menninger is her next door neighbor at 2555 W. Fifth, Los Angeles.

EAGLE SCOUT AWARD

Leland Smith, Sierra Madre Boy Scout, will receive his Eagle Badge award at the Boy Scout Court of Honor to be held in the auditorium of City School Monday, Feb. 2, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Many An Old Instrument To Find New Life In The Band

Residents of Sierra Madre and vicinity are dusting off their old piccolos (or what have you?) in preparation to meet the growing enthusiasm for the organizing of a community band.

Many a wood, brass, or stringed instrument that has lain dormant for lack of encouragement is now being put to the polish. Nor all the players will be strictly amateur, either. More than one applicant reporting for the new band has—at one time or another—played professionally.

The first practice of the band will be held at City Hall on Thursday evening, Feb. 5, beginning at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Matilda Smith, of the Sierra Madre City School, will assist Marie Oliva in directing the band.

Mrs. Smith obtained her B.S. degree in music at the University of Cincinnati. For six years she directed the greater Cincinnati Methodist Chorus, and was music director of three choirs in Winton Place.

City Council held a long session before a large audience last Tuesday evening, accompanied by lively "audience participation." Chief disputes were caused by subjects pertaining to lot splits, and a swimming pool, which was said by neighbors near the pool to be a menace to their children's safety.

The lot-split argument arose from the appeal case of Mrs. J. J. Davis who says she wants to build two homes at Alegria and Sunnyside, facing Sunnyside. Mrs. May de Wright, who owns property near that area, has expressed herself as being against the idea because she believes the rear view of the proposed new homes would lessen the value of her property.

When Robert Aarons, representing Mrs. Davis, hinted that Mrs. Wright might be using her position as chairman of the Planning Commission to influence the case, Mrs. Wright was quick to give him an answer, pointing out that there was no connection with her chairmanship and her rights as a private citizen.

Harry E. Johnson, a past chairman of the Planning Commission, rose from the audience to defend Mrs. Wright.

City Council asked to see the deeds to the Davis property, which were delivered toward the end of the meeting, at which time the subject was renewed. When a deed dated 1926 was disclosed, stating that two lots should face Sunnyside, it appeared that the matter was not one for the council to decide.

But when Councilman Eaton raised a question based on the legalities of "single ownership," council referred the matter to—

New Shopping Area Planned At Town Edge

Plans for a new community center, to be located in the northwest area at the intersection of West Sierra Madre boulevard and Michillinda, are in the making, according to Francis Zeiler, one of the owners of the Coronet Construction Company, Inc.

Although no definite date to begin the building of the center has been set, Zeiler describes it as being "in the near future." Asked what else it will include besides a large grocery mart, Zeiler said that no information for details was yet available, but that the shopping center would be "complete."

The news comes within 30 days of an announcement by Market Basket that it will begin construction of a new super market on Foothill boulevard just west of Rosemead. At the time this information was given, Neal D. Ramsey, Market Basket president, said that construction was expected to be under way within 90 days.

Completion of the new Market Basket was expected within approximately 7 months. It is to be one of the first units in a shopping center that was said to be planned on a large scale by Fauley Brothers and Fritz Burns of Los Angeles.

Many An Old Instrument To Find New Life In The Band

A LOT OF SIERRA MADREANS DON'T KNOW that there is a mountain community three miles north of them that stays very much alive throughout the year and sometimes helps others keep alive. But these residents of Chantry Flats, at the end of the mountain road leading up from Santa Anita avenue, are some of those who prove that the days of rugged, western living are not gone forever. They are—if you'll skip the burros for a moment—from left to right: "Riley" Herrick, Ray Trygar, "Red" Shangraw, and Bill Adams, who own the pack station there with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Adams. The two burros, unidentified by name, are part of the pack train that includes one mule, four horses and three other burros. Not only do they "pack in" to the Big Santa Anita Canyon to supply the cabins there, but many are the nights they have trudged the dangerous mountain miles to bring a lost, or fallen, hiker back alive.

GOP SETS BANQUET DATE

The 48th Republican Assembly's "Annual Lincoln Day Banquet" will be held Wednesday, Feb. 11, at the Altadena Town and Country Club, 2290 Country Club Drive, beginning at 7 p.m.

Sierra Madreans who wish to attend may buy their tickets from Tom Schwartz at the Sierra Madre Hardware, or Harold Roberts of Roberts Market.

Schwartz expects a large turnout. "It's the first Lincoln Day Dinner since 1934 to be held by the 48th Assembly during the administration of a Republican president," he says.

New Progress In Plan For Swim Pool

A new swimming pool for Sierra Madre came a little closer to being a reality last Friday afternoon after a luncheon meeting of seven representatives from three local organizations who studied a plan for the pool.

The plan submitted by Architect William C. Taylor, attending the meeting, included a bath house, a paved area for parking, a fence, or wall, on all sides, and a landscape layout. Those who studied the plan were Post Commander Manuel de la Torre, VFW; Ralph "Pappy" Welch, Harold Pangborn, and Club President Bob Buttane, of the Lions; Arthur Rittterath, Dr. Daniel D'Arcy, and Hugh Warden, of Kiwanis.

Taylor stressed the importance of using quality materials in construction of the pool so that it would still be durable with a minimum amount of maintenance. The committee, with Harley F. Weitzel as advisor, agreed that the pool should be one that the city would be proud of throughout its long use.

On the subject of raising funds for the pool "Pappy" Welch, representing the Sierra Madre Swimming Pool Association, introduced William Overly, of the Pan American Amusement Company, who described the procedures by which communities have used local fairs to raise money.

If Sierra Madre decides upon such a plan, or the renewal of "Pioneer Days," all local organizations will be asked to participate, with all profits going to the pool. Tentative date for the suggested fair was set for June.

The next meeting of the group will be Friday evening, Jan. 30, beginning at 7:30 in Dr. D'Arcy's office, 62 West Sierra Madre boulevard. Representatives from all local organizations are invited to these meetings.

HARTMAN HOME

Rudolph Hartman, owner of the Hartman Pharmacy, returned to his home at 460 N. Lima Monday for a week's recuperation after undergoing a major operation Jan. 15.

Mountain Rescues Shared By Pack Train Community

New Airport May Locate Near Here

Advantages of a nearby airport for light planes and "executive type" aircraft were outlined Monday, Jan. 26, at a meeting in Arcadia sponsored by the San Gabriel Valley Airport Association.

Los Angeles County's Regional Planning Commission will hold a hearing on the matter of a special zoning permit for the airport's establishment on Feb. 6, after twice re-scheduling the hearing date.

Sierra Madre and surrounding communities would be able to utilize the field located near Santa Fe Dam in Duarte.

Old Shoes Put To New Use In Dimes' March

One of the widest assortment of shoes ever to be seen on the streets of Sierra Madre will be lined up, without benefit of wearers, on a downtown street in the vicinity of the Bank of Sierra Madre Saturday from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m.

It won't be for a rummage sale, but for the March of Dimes, according to Mrs. Mary Stirtion, local chairman for the anti-polio campaign.

The project is the result of the combined ideas of Mrs. Stirtion, who wants to lift the city above its present low mark of $800 in contributions, and Mrs. Lola Rudbach, who found that her home at 272 E. Highland was being crowded by too many shoes that could apparently be of no use anywhere except at a costume ball.

Mrs. Rudbach, wondering what possible good the shoes might do, thought of the March of Dimes. "A march suggests feet, and feet suggest shoes," she said. "It was as simple as that."

Since then, she has collected other shoes that should cause almost any passer-by to stop for a second glance, long enough to drop some change for a good cause. Among them will be a pair of Policeman Bob Heasley's shoes, size 14, which he challenges anyone in town to match.

The smallest pair will be those belonging to Mrs. Hugh Warden—size 2½!

Helping in the campaign, which Governor Warren has described as "the most critical" in California history, will be the Campfire Girls, Bluebirds, Scouts, Cubs, Brownies and Girl Scouts. All are asking Sierra Madre residents to help them make the project a success.

"We want the shoes filled, but not with feet this time," Mrs. Stirtion says. "We want them filled with money—that others may walk."

In the mountains of Sierra Madre there are long, long trails a-winding that lead into the land of dreams, bad dreams, for Sunday hikers who fail to heed the warnings of men who know the country.

Such men are Bill Adams, Ralph "Red" Shangraw, Hubert "Riley" Herrick and Ray Trygar. They and their neighbors in the Chantry Flats area have helped the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Crew "pull out" 17 people from the hills within the last 18 months. Sometimes the lost or injured hikers are actually pulled out, by rope and stretcher.

They agree that the countryside is a beautiful thing to explore, and they do all they can to help people enjoy it. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Adams and son, Bill, who own the burro pack station at Chantry Flats, have run the station off and on since 1939. They "pack in," with Herrick's help, to the 142 cabins in Big Santa Anita Canyon, where four cabin owners live all year round. They also keep a store, park cars for cabin owners—and sometimes stay up half the night searching for lost innocents who thought the mountains would be just another Sunday picnic.

There are quite a number of Sierra Madreans who know the country well enough to add their advice to the residents' words of caution. Among them are those who have visited Fern Lodge, owned by the YMCA; Sturtevant Camp, owned by the Methodist Church, and Camp Ivy, owned by Mr. Nelson.

When "Red" Shangraw, who has lived part time in Big Santa Anita Canyon since 1934, talks of Sierra Madre's "wild country" he mentions names such as Tom Schwartz, George Morris and Lloyd Welch.

"All those guys were raised up here," he says. "Dick Hawks was another. He used to come up with the boys on rescue, several years ago."

Herrick, who works for the Adams, went to grammar school in Sierra Madre and among his classmates he names Dick Hawks, Dick Lees, Preston Schwartz and Jimmy Warden. Both men attribute the success of their rescue work to the "well coordination" of the Rescue Crew, the Forestry Service and the county sheriff's office, which has sent an emergency patrol plane on more than one occasion.

Ray Trygar, suppression crew foreman for Chantry Flats, is in the U.S. Forestry Service that has installed eight telephone boxes in the area. The boxes, placed in strategic positions throughout the canyons, also contain portable fire pumps. Along with other uses, the telephones are helpful to members of a searching party who slowly tighten a circle to find a mountain victim.

This was the method used recently in saving the life of a Los Angeles Boy Scout who was found unconscious after several hours of a night search.

What about the pack train? It consists of five burros, one mule, and four horses for leading the train.

They seem well aware that they've been called upon many a night to go trailing into the adventurer's land of dreams that can, for those who aren't careful, turn into a nightmare.

ERC SPEAKS FOR SCHOOL

Consolidated Plans 'Park' Development

Consolidated Engineering Corporation, electronic analytical instruments firm located at 300 N. Sierra Madre Villa in the Hastings Ranch area, today filed petition with Pasadena Planning Commission for zone change from Second Residential to Commercial-Parking, of a 20-acre site recently acquired by the company north of the present plant, to permit light manufacturing use of the site, with overall plans to develop the area into a landscaped and architecturally controlled industrial community to be known as "Instrument Park."

Answers Those Doubting Site

The outcome of Monday night's ERC open meeting on the projected City School bond will be the appearance of School Superintendent Charles Skutt and School Board Trustees at the Tuesday night, Feb. 3, Coordinating Council meeting to answer specific questions on alternative school sites, master plan cost estimates, and results of the previous City School bond issue.

Most of the ERC meeting was concerned with the complex question: "What size should the new school be in order to satisfy the requirements of acreage, student enrollment, the welfare of the students, the good of the community, and efficient administration?"

These many angles to the problem were brought up repeatedly in the session when figures of the estimated cost of the proposed new building were presented by the board of trustees, and the school administration.

Estimate of new construction includes a portion of a master plan now under consideration. Six rooms, toilet facilities, and an administration unit are proposed. Construction, exclusive of site and site development, was estimated at $124,850 for immediate needs.

The School Board has proposed a new site for an additional school on the Hall estate

Seek Parking Solution For Canyon Cars

Canyon residents in the vicinity of Sturtevant, Vista Circle drive, Alta Vista and Oakdale, attended the City Council meeting last Tuesday night in hopes of clearing up what so far has been a stalemate in parking problems.

Their spokesman, William O. Horne, explained that the no parking law in the area so far prohibited even ministers and doctors from parking while on call.

"Even your own city employees, such as the water department, legally have no place to leave a car," Horne said.

Council was sympathetic when it learned that the Canyon residents were not asking for all night or all day parking, but merely for "spot parking" where cars could be left in certain places at limited intervals without blocking the narrow roads from fire department, police or ambulance use.

Horne's action at the meeting was the follow-up to a letter to City Council signed by 52 Canyon residents.

The matter was referred to City Attorney Cornyn who, in cooperation with Chief of Police G. G. McMillan, may find a solution to the stalemate.

"Fathers' Work Day" Goes for Double Date

"Father's Work Day" at Sierra Madre's Community Nursery School last Sunday required so much painting in the two rooms of the new addition that two divisions were scheduled, the second to take over this Sunday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

During the painting session last Sunday, when the priming coat was spread over the walls, the Nursery School Auxiliary brought refreshments to encourage the workers.

Additional work presented itself because of the 6 x 8-foot structure hauled in by fathers the Saturday before, to be used as a playhouse for the children.

No Chamber of Commerce?..

Talk of organizing a Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce is making the rounds again. Some merchants are all for the idea. Others take the view that they are not against the plan so long as they don't have to be bothered with it.

As in every debate, there is something to be said for both sides—even from the angle of the average citizen who might benefit without cost to himself in either time or money.

For instance, it has been generally assumed that most residents wanted to see a new shelter house, replacing the ghost of the old one, in the Triangle. Yet there seems to be a growing belief (from other citizens who have expressed themselves, at least) that the Triangle looks "just right" the way it is.

If Sierra Madre had a Chamber of Commerce, the talk that goes round and round—whether it be concerned with the shelter house, off-street parking, or any other issue—could be focused into something more constructive than mere talk.

In all the pros and cons we often hear it said that Sierra Madre is not the "Chamber of Commerce type." This argument goes on to the effect that most people who come here want to "get away from all that." It also is said that Sierra Madre, to the commuter who earns his living elsewhere, is merely "a bedroom" during his work days.

The one hard fact that remains, however, is that Sierra Madre is growing. Three years ago, East Grandview was a quiet road where deer crossed in the daytime; residents in many sections had to fence their gardens to prevent the hungry creatures from eating their plants. But those days are disappearing faster than most of us realize—or like to realize. The deer aren't with us any more.

Instead, we have a picture in which new stop signs and traffic signals are in the making. New subdivisions, new homes, new shops are here. Schools are crowded and downtown parking space is not so easy to find.

Whether we like it or not, the question is being forced upon us: "How long can Sierra Madre remain the only town of its size in Southern California without a Chamber of Commerce?"

Blood Bank Accepts 154 Donors Here

One hundred and fifty-four Sierra Madreans each donated a pint of blood to the Mobile Unit of the Red Cross Blood Bank a week ago yesterday, Jan. 21.

Of the total appointments, 30 were cancelled because of illness, 21 were permanent, and two permanently.

Eight persons received their Gallon Pins at this time. They were Mrs. Ruth Rogers, Mrs. Harold Spears, Henry Eschell, Mrs. Edward Davey, Sam LaSala, Fred Littman, Boyd Keith and Frank Rawlings.

City employees helped set up the equipment in the Woman's Clubhouse which was made available by the Sierra Madre Woman's Club. Members of the Community Nursery School acted as baby sitters for mothers who were accompanied by children.

The next Blood Bank date in Sierra Madre is May 20, at which time the city's quota will be a minimum of 200 pints.

March of Dimes Mothers Will Carry Identification Feb. 5

The women of Sierra Madre who join the "Mothers' March" against polio the evening of Feb. 5 will carry March of Dimes envelopes with their individual names as identifications, according to Mrs. Noel McGarvin, 70 Rancho Road, who is the local chairman for the march.

"Although the whole town will be covered," Mrs. McGarvin has said, "we want to make a special point in letting people know that the entire sections of the upper and lower Canyon area will be covered. Please turn on your lights at seven!"

The women will travel in pairs, going from house to house with kitchen utensils suitable for containing the donations they receive. There will be approximately 150 of them, organized by Mrs. McGarvin and her committee composed of the following members: Mrs. Emile Smith, Mrs. Bryce Tyler, Mrs. Roland Adams, Mrs. Charles Morgan and Mrs. Emory Johnson.

One of the lead workers in the upper Canyon area will be Mrs. Roland Rountree, 237 Vista Circle. In the lower Canyon section, the neighborhood will be organized by Mrs. Mercer Duff of 507 Brookside.

Money contributions of any amounts will be acceptable. Mrs. McGarvin has announced. For those who would like to join the "Mothers' March"—sometimes referred to as the "Porchlight Parade"—she has asked that her telephone number be made available—CU. 5-3642.

Mrs. Schweppe New

Girl Scout Notes

Sierra Madre Girl Scouts and Brownies will begin taking orders for cookies this Saturday, Jan. 31.

The sale marks their annual project to raise money for troop and camping activities. The products are the same plain shortbread and filled cookies that the girls have sold for several years. They are especially popular because they keep well in an opened package for several months.

Delivery of the cookies will begin Saturday, Feb. 7, and money will not be collected until delivery is made. The sale will end Feb. 21.

Sierra Madreans who have not been contacted, and who would like to help the Girl Scouts by buying cookies, should telephone Mrs. George Osborn, CU 5-0307.

THE SIERRA MADRE LIONS CLUB will be host tonight to Casilda Amador, ballerina now appearing at Padua Hills in the play, "Once in the Spring." The special program, which will include a brief address by Dr. Ralph Martin, recently returned from Chicago, marks the end of the club's "New Members Month" with induction ceremonies for the new members. The meeting will begin promptly at 7:15 p.m. in order that Miss Amador may complete her performance in time to return for her appearance tonight in Padua Hills.

Campfire Log

The newly elected president of the Sierra Madre Campfire Girls Leaders Association, Mrs. William Gallaway, has the honor of representing all Leaders Associations at the San Gabriel Valley Area Board meetings. This privilege is allowed Sierra Madre once every six years.

The Tando group of 9th grade Campfire Girls enjoyed a roller skating party Jan. 24, followed the next day by a taffy pull at the home of Ernestine McGarry, 557 N. Auburn, according to their leader, Mrs. Richard Crook.

The Feb. 3 party, to which the O-Ki-Zu Campfire Girls, their leader Mrs. Elizabeth Hawkins, and all the mothers of both groups are invited, is to be held at the home of Sarah Carver, 257 E. Montecito. A special feature of the program will be the appearance of Mrs. William Fischer, of William Fischer Hair Fashions, who will speak on the subject, "Good Grooming."

Plans have been made for the Winter Council Fire tomorrow, Jan. 30, beginning at 7:30 o'clock in Pritchard Hall of the Congregational Church. This is the event at which the girls receive their awards. The Indian theme decorations have been made by Mrs. William Harris.

Invocation will be by Rev. Carl Smith, and welcoming by Mrs. C. L. Young. The commentator will be Mrs. Gordon Blanke.

City School Students Watch Inauguration

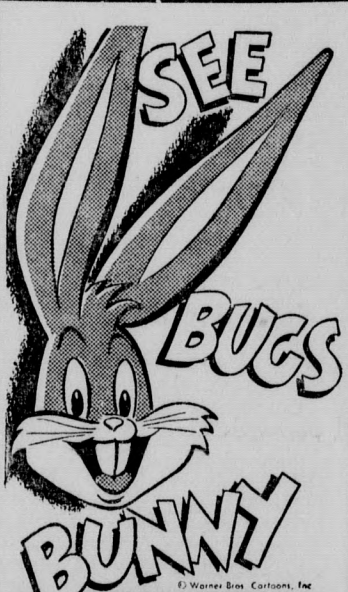

The students of City School, in fourth, fifth and sixth grades, "attended" the first inauguration of their lives when they watched the inaugural ceremonies at the school through the courtesy of Thompson TV Towne and Meyer Television.

Two sets were installed at City School, one in the auditorium and one in a sixth grade classroom. There were classes going and coming all day in the auditorium, according to Miss Betty Newton, second grade teacher. The primary grades—first, second and third classes—also had the opportunity of seeing parts of the Inauguration Day activities.

PCC Continues Retail Advertising Course

A continuation of the course in retail advertising is being offered at Pasadena City College on Wednesday nights, 7 to 9:30 o'clock, starting Feb. 4. The course will offer problems met by buyer and seller. Actual problems in how to present merchandise in an ad will be featured and types of layout and copy used. Several guest speakers from the advertising field will be presented throughout the term.

ASCENSION GUILDS ANNOUNCE PLANS FOR EXHIBIT OF EUGENE FIELD POSSESSIONS

Some of the personal possessions, heirlooms and manuscripts of the late Eugene Field, noted poet, will be exhibited the afternoon and evening of Feb. 13 in the home of the poet's grandson, Eugene Field Englar, and Mrs. Englar, 405 Canon drive.

The exhibit is being sponsored as a fund-raising event by the St. Elizabeth's and St. Catherine's Guilds of which Mrs. Roy C. Arnold and Mrs. Hall Perry are the respective presidents. The guilds are associated with the Women's Auxiliary of the Church of Ascension.

According to the sponsors, the exhibit is open to the public. Refreshments will be served from 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m. In the evening the refreshments will include punch served from the Field majolica punch bowl.

The Eugene Field School in Hastings Ranch is, of course, named for the poet, and at the time of its dedication the Englars placed some of the Field heirlooms on exhibit.

The Englars have lived in Sierra Madre for five years, coming here from Altadena. Mr. Englar's mother, the late Mary French Field, was the poet's eldest daughter and has read his poems for years for appreciative audiences throughout the East during his lifetime and after. She resided in Altadena for 25 years.

Mr. Englar was born in the old Field home in Chicago. Sierra Madre's Lee Shippey points out that Field, the poet, was among this country's first newspaper columnist and for years conducted the column, "Sharps and Flats" for the Chicago Tribune.

Dr. Roy Brown To Be Bethany Guest Speaker

Dr. Roy Brown will be holding a week's Bible conference at Bethany Church of Sierra Madre, Feb. 1-8.

Dr. Brown is a layman who entered the ministry of Bible teaching after years of successful business experience. He has consequently brought to his task a fresh approach which has developed through many years of platform experience in many of the largest churches, schools and Bible conferences in America.

"Roy L. Brown," says the Rev. Mr. Rood, Bethany pastor, "uses large colored platform charts which graphically illuminate the truths which the Bible contains. To see and hear one of Mr. Brown's messages will bring an unforgettable listening experience."

He will speak nightly at 7:30, Sunday through Feb. 8, save for Monday and Saturday evenings. He will also speak at the Sunday 11 a.m. services.

A nursery will be provided during all sessions of the conference.

St. Rita's Guild Members Busy with Plans For Breakfast February 8, Valentine Dance

Plans were completed for a Valentine dance Feb. 13 and a Holy Name breakfast Feb. 8, and further plans for the new year were discussed at a meeting Monday night of the executive board of St. Rita's Church Guild.

The dance will be informal and is scheduled for 8:30 p.m. in the Pasadena Athletic Club, 425 E. Green, Pasadena. Music will be by Jack Skove's orchestra, according to Mrs. W. R. Sidenfaden, general chairman.

The Holy Name breakfast will be served by Guild members to men of the parish and Boy Scouts after the 8:30 a.m. mass on Feb. 8.

The board meeting at which these plans were made was held in the home of Mrs. V. John Barry, 1303 Oakwood

Rev. Gibbs and six active officers and members of the Missionary Society of the Sierra Madre church attended. They included: Mrs. MacNeill, president of the local society; Mrs. Gertrude Atwell, Mrs. Edwin Timrott, Mrs. Richard Chaney, Mrs. Lydia Bell and Mrs. Lonnie Hall.

ERC SPEAKS

in the eastern part of town, but Dr. Roland W. Funk asked whether other sites had been considered.

Howell N. White, Jr., board president, assured Dr. Funk that the question had been under consideration by the board for a number of years.

Mrs. Grace Vane asked if all possibilities on the present site had been exhausted.

Mr. White answered that, according to state recommendations, the present acreage per student enrollment is now substandard. Mrs. Tom E. Willis, president of P-T-A, backed up his statement by pointing out that at the present time 136 City School kindergarten children are expected to exercise in a play yard that contains less space than the school cafeteria.

The question was asked as to why property next to the present school was not considered in preference to a remote location.

White repeated his previous statements of several recent meetings. He said that the present school is overcrowded; that expansion is desirable; that the proposed location is near a heavily populated district, the canyon, which would solve some of the present transportation problems. He stated that the estimated cost of the new site was a deciding factor, in that the undeveloped property could be purchased at a fraction of the cost of property around the school, and that because of the contour of the land, site development costs would be at a minimum.

In summarizing the meeting Severin L. Sorensen, chairman of ERC, proposed that at the next meeting of the committee the unresolved questions should be considered with the aid of competent qualified advice. He suggested that Bruce Hawk, field assistant to the county superintendent of schools, be asked to appear again.

Mrs. Doris Hartman, vice-chairman of ERC, stated that she is checking projected population figures through all possible channels.

Date of future meeting was not announced.

Ozark Poet-Evangelist To Hold Nightly Meetings At Nazarene

A series of evangelistic services will open at 7:30 Sunday night in the Church of the Nazarene, 191 W. Sierra Madre boulevard, and will continue nightly at that time through Feb. 8, with the exception of Saturday night, Feb. 7.

The reading of his original poems by the guest evangelist, Rev. Charles Hastings Smith of Conway, Ark., will add a depth of Gospel meaning to the services, according to the local pastor, Rev. Orian G. Burlison.

Rev. Smith is widely known, not only as an evangelist of outstanding success, but also as "Poet of the Ozarks," Rev. Burlison points out.

Special music for the series will be provided by the eastern evangelist Rev. Marvin Cooper, with Mrs. Cooper in charge of the singing, and their two small daughters participating. The Coopers are on an extended vacation from their home in Arlington, Virginia, spending the

DEATH COMES TO HENRY BEHMER

Henry Andrew Behmer, who resided here for 29 years, died suddenly while working his ranch in Baldwin Park last Thursday, Jan. 22. He was well known to many in Sierra Madre, especially in the days when he had a small cafe on Baldwin around the corner from Kersting Court. His last residence here was at 39 Windsor Lane.

He is survived by his wife, Lillie Katherine, and one sister, Martha Linn of Salina, Ohio.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon in Grant Chapel, with Rev. Carl Smith officiating. Interment is in Live Oak Cemetery, Monrovia.

Behmer, who was 67, was a native of Greenville, Ohio.

L. A. Book Reviewer To Appear on Woman's Club Program Feb. 11

Approximately 75 members of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club heard their requests sung by Jimmy O'Brien whose songs constituted the program at the club's regular meeting and tea yesterday in the clubhouse. Mrs. Peter Tabahak was tea chairman and her assistants poured.

The luncheon and card party held Friday in the clubhouse under the chairmanship of Mrs. Vern Eppard, was attended by more than 70 members and guests. Bridge and canasta were played. This luncheon was the first in a possible series of monthly luncheons, the continuation of which will depend on members' interest.

The next business meeting, luncheon and program is scheduled for 11 a.m. Feb. 11 when Mrs. Edward Tufts, Los Angeles book reviewer, will discuss three current books, according to Mrs. Percy C. Kortkamp, program chairman.

CHURCH NURSERY NEARS COMPLETION

The nursery addition being built at the First Baptist Church, 49 S. Baldwin, is nearing completion and Rev. Roy Reed Gibbs, pastor, expects that it will be available for use for the first time by Sunday, Feb. 8. The nursery committee, headed by Mrs. Gibbs, would welcome contributions of toys, crib sheets and other nursery needs.

Parents attending morning morning and evening services will be able to leave their small children in the nursery where supervision will be provided.

Much of the construction work is being done by Edwin Timrott, chairman of the building committee, and by Rev. Gibbs.

The nursery has been made possible financially by a newer member of the congregation who wishes to remain anonymous, Rev. Gibbs says.

On their return to this country they will visit their families in the Midwest.

Billy Johnson, 4, Recuperating at Home From Eye Operation

With the exception of a slight cold, Billy Johnson, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold V. Johnson, 658 Orange drive, is recuperating at home following an operation on both eyes on Feb. 16. The operation is the first in a series of several which will be performed over a period of years to perfect the youngster's vision.

While Billy was in the hospital and his mother with him there much of the time his sisters, Bunny and Dianna, age 13 and 10, respectively, and his teen-age brothers, John and Elgin Mason, supervised the daytime running of the household, Mrs. Johnson says.

Mrs. John B. Mott Honored by Friends At a Stork Shower

Myra Lea (Mrs. John B.) Mott of Sierra Madre was guest of honor Jan. 22 at a stork shower given by three of her friends, Mrs. Tony Loomis of Hastings Ranch, Mrs. Melburn Stine of Sierra Madre and Mrs. Lona Dyer of Altadena in Mrs. Stine's home, 375 E. Grandview.

Those attending the party are still chuckling appreciatively about the youthfulness and activity of one of the guests, Mrs. Elwood D. Mott of Pasadena, an 82-year-old great-grandmother who drives her own "jalopy" and who chauffeured to the party her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Verna Mott and the guest of honor's mother, Mrs. Carrie Davidson, neither of whom drives a car herself.

Others attending included: Mrs. Marie Christensen, Mrs. Betsy Benson, Mrs. Helen Meyer, Miss Gloria Morrison, Mrs. Pearl Cook, Mrs. Marcella Carlson, Mrs. Marguerite Lorch, Mrs. Bea Wilson and Mrs. Gertrude Daniels, all of Sierra Madre, and Mrs. Myriel Dean of Pasadena.

Birthday "Luncheon" Honors Cheryl Fletcher

Janet Martha Willis Becomes Mrs. Rogers In Nuptials Here

The former Janet Martha Willis and her new husband, Beverly Hugh Rogers, are honeymooning in Palm Springs this week following their marriage Friday night in Bethany Church.

The bride, a former Sierra Madrean, is the daughter of Mrs. Clifford Carl Willis, 3680 Landfair road, Hastings Ranch, and of the late Mr. Willis. The Willises had resided in Sierra Madre for 12 years prior to moving to Pasadena 15 years ago and coming to Hastings Ranch within the past year.

Mr. Rogers, a recently discharged army corporal who served 18 months in Korea, is the son of Mrs. Irene Rogers of Baldwin Park.

The young couple pledged their vows by candlelight in a flower setting in a ceremony performed by Rev. Don B. Rood and witnessed by approximately 200 of their relatives and many friends from this area and elsewhere in California.

Mrs. Muriel Whitehall of South Pasadena, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Mr. Richard A. DeWilde of Alhambra served Mr. Rogers as best man. Bridesmaids were Mrs. DeWilde and Mrs. Glen Knabenshue of Alhambra. Mr. Knabenshue and Mr. Tony Stefano, the latter of South Pasadena, were ushers.

The bride's gown was of traditional old ivory satin with which she wore a fingertip veil and carried a bouquet of white orchids and carnations. Mrs. Whitehall wore emerald green taffeta and carried talisman carnations and the bridesmaids were gowned in garnet taffeta and their flowers were clusters of rose-pink carnations tied with matching ribbons.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Willis wore navy blue crepe and a blue orchid corsage. Mrs. Rogers was in Alice blue with which she wore a rose-pink orchid.

Preceding the ceremony Mr. James Witt of Pasadena sang two selections, "Through the Years" and "Thine Alone" and during the prayer sang "Savior Like a Shepherd Lead Us." He was accompanied by Mrs. Bryce Carlson, pianist.

Flowers used as decoration were in bridal white arranged on pedestals garlanded with lemon leaves. White candles were used in two large candelabra.

A reception in the church followed the ceremony.

On their return from Palm Springs Mr. and Mrs. Rogers will make their home in an apartment at 904 Edith, Alhambra. Mrs. Rogers, who is a graduate of the South Pasadena-San Marino High School, is employed by the Security First National Bank in Los Angeles.

Among out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Flint and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Fine of Porterville, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Goin of Strathmore, Calif.

A number of pre-nuptial parties honored the former Miss Willis, all miscellaneous showers. Among those entertaining for her were Mrs. Harry Howard, 97 S. Hermosa, Mrs. DeWilde and Mrs. Knabenshue.

Storkland

A daughter, Maria Lisa, was born Jan. 21 at Huntington Memorial Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Gale Boulton, 44 Vista Circle drive.

Maria Lisa has an older brother, Christopher, 20 months old.

Twins, a boy and girl, weighing 7 lbs., 1 oz. and 6 lbs., 10 oz., were born Jan. 18 in St. Luke Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Teissedre, 401 W. Sierra Madre boulevard.

They have been named Robin Don and Rebecca Diane. The babies have a brother, Jack Richard, Jr., age two and a half years.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Maple are now the parents of a son, Richard Lawrence. Their new addition to the family was born in Denver, Colo., where Maple is stationed with the Air Force. Maple lived in Sierra Madre until two years ago. He attended public school here, and Pasadena City College.

Sierra Madreans Make Early Airport Visit

The Frederick Roess family was up at what Mr. Roess described as a "very early, early hour" to meet Mrs. Roess' niece, Patricia Keup, who arrived by plane at 5:15 the morning of Jan. 19, at the International Airport.

Mrs. Harold Spears and daughter, Mary, also were among the early risers. Because of being old friends of "Pat," they drove the Roesses to the airport.

"Pat" later visited her cousin, Jack Young, a make-up artist at MGM, and another cousin, Carl Young of Venice, whom she hadn't seen in 10 years.

Friends Gather At Baby Shower Honoring Mrs. Don Matson

Mrs. Robert Axelson of Pasadena was hostess Jan. 19 at a stork shower for a Sierra Madrean, Mrs. Don Matson, 646 Orange drive.

Mrs. Matson had been hostess a month ago at a similar party for Mrs. Axelson.

Among guests at the more recent shower were Mrs. Matson's sister, Mrs. James Dewey, and Mrs. Robert McGinley, both of Sierra Madre. Other guests were from Pasadena.

Mrs. Matson received a number of gifts. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Home building accounted for the major portion of the year's construction, in Los Angeles County, with $641,000,828, or 68.5 per cent of the total.

Dixie Leonard, Age 6, Feted at Birthday Party

Many of her small friends attended Dixie Leonard's sixth birthday anniversary party Friday in her home at 239 E. Sierra Madre boulevard. Dixie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leonard.

After playing games the youngsters were taken to the puppet show at the Sierra Madre School, then returned to Dixie's home for refreshments.

Those wishing "Happy Birthday" to the little girl included: Vicky Jones, Pat Tyler, Susan Bartley, Renee Valois, Nancy Carr, Melinda Tidmore, Karen Cannon, Claudia Fritz, Jimmy Willot, Abby and Roger Keith, Tina Bartel and Marilyn Kirk. Cathy Thomas and Larry Albert were unable to attend because of illness.

Shivaree Honors Thomas P. Buies On 25th Anniversary

Beating on tin cans, ringing cow bells and bearing refreshments, fellow lodge members of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Prentice Buie, 225 N. Lima, gave them an old fashioned "shivaree" the night of Jan. 20 on the occasion of the Buies' 25th wedding anniversary.

The party-givers, all of Pasadena, were line officers of Arctabian Shrine No. 5, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, of which Mrs. Buie is worthy high priestess.

The regular meeting of the White Shrine Feb. 3 in Pasadena will be followed by a reception for the membership honoring Mr. and Mrs. Buie.

Those attending the "shivaree" last week included: Mr. and Mrs. Rex Way Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Meagher, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Halderman, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Crowley, Mr. and Mrs. Urban, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ledbetter of Pasadena and Mr. Buie's mother, Mrs. Kittie Buie of Sierra Madre.

MOVING DAY FOR JOHN POWELLS

Mr. and Mrs. John Powell and 11-year-old daughter, Coralyn, will move tomorrow, from 800 E. Grandview to an address just five blocks away in Arcadia, 1953 Alta Oaks drive.

The Powells are active in Sierra Madre church groups and other organizations.

K. S. Oldenburgs At Home Here; Wed Jan. 19 in Las Vegas

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth S. Oldenburg are at home at 130 W. Highland after their marriage Jan. 19 in Las Vegas. Mr. and Mrs. Oldenburg met in their home city, Rochester, N. Y., about six years ago where Mrs. Oldenburg was associated with the Abstract Title Insurance Corporation and was active in church and lodge affairs.

She is a past president of the Diocesan Board, Women's Auxiliary of the Episcopal Church and a past matron of the Order of Eastern Star.

Mr. Oldenburg is employed at the Union Oil Station in Sierra Madre and has resided here for about three years. One of his co-workers, William Nicholson, was his best man and Mrs. Nicholson was matron of honor.

For her wedding in the Little Chapel of the West Mrs. Oldenburg wore a grey suit, white hat and corsage of deep red cymbidium. Mrs. Nicholson wore chartreuse and brown and her corsage was of chartreuse cymbidium.

The two couples had a wedding dinner at The Sands in Las Vegas.

TEACHERS' CLUB HOLDS MEETING

Highlight of the Teachers' Club meeting at City School Tuesday afternoon was the presentation of a gift to the newest member of the school family, baby Roger Lee Ellenson, second son of a teacher of the fifth grade.

Letters from the Blue Cross Medical Plan were reviewed by Secretary Philip Mitchell and Betty Newton, chairman of the salary committee, reported affects of recent state legislation on local salaries.

A minimum of $500 yearly salary increase is advocated by the California Teachers Association. The committee was requested to make a study of proposed salary schedules in LA County and report at next month's meeting.

President Vivien Olson presided.

SEE INAUGURATION ON TV

A group of neighbors gathered Jan. 20 to watch the television broadcast of the inaugural ceremonies and to have coffee and brunch in the home of Mrs. L. M. Evans, 450 N. Baldwin.

In the group were Mrs. Hazel M. Hardin, Mrs. Woodson Jones and her sister, Mrs. Julia Shannon, Mrs. Robert Hicks and Mrs. Charles McGregor.

Muir Thompson broke the city's 15-ft. rope climbing record last week... unofficially. Yes, last week against an easy Washington team, Muir showed everybody that it can be done. The record is 3.6 seconds and Muir did it in 3.5. But as we mentioned a few weeks ago, the record cannot be broken until the City Meet, which is in February. Well, Muir, the time is nearing, and we're still hoping.

Last Monday Marshall had their student elections. The man who was elected president was Mr. Athlete himself, Henry Aguilar. But we're sorry to note that Henry is no longer a resident of Sierra Madre. Henry has moved to the Pasadena area, leaving Tony Pascoe the only one from Sierra Madre who is on the Marshall "A" basketball team.

Danny Peterson was elected to the office of Safety. Danny is hoping to go out for swimming later in the season. Danny, who has a swimming pool all his own, seems to be getting a little gray since he heard that Sierra Madre is looking for one. But worry no more, Danny boy! "Pappy" Welch said that they couldn't find a truck big enough to carry it. (No, Danny, we don't think a private pool would be big enough for our community gang.)

The John Muir Mustangs have their work cut out for them in the next three games, the first to start with Muir playing LACC Friday night. Then Tuesday, the big one against Pasadena, and on next Thursday they play the UCLA Frosh. Their record thus far this year is 6 wins and 11 losses.

Pasadena isn't going to have a tea party either. They play host to the tough Glendale "Vaqueros" Friday at Pasadena, then on Tuesday the John Muir battle played at Muir, and on Thursday they play Santa Ana at Pasadena. After these two teams play this week, the Western State Conference will be half over.

Local Children Appear In Pasadena Operetta

Three Sierra Madre children, Lynn Moffet, age 10, and Joanne and Smokey Bush, 11 and 13 years of age, respectively, appeared recently in an operetta, "Queen of the Sawdust," presented in the Pasadena Presbyterian Church.

Lynn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Moffet, 94 Esperanza, and Joanne and Smokey are children of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bush, 633 W. Sierra Madre boulevard.

Joanne played the part of a village belle, Smokey her "hayseed" boy friend and Lynn was another villager.

The operetta, presented to raise funds for choir vestments, was written by Mrs. Mac Nightingale of the Los Angeles school system.

team, lacking in players, lost to Monterey Park by a score of 3 losses and 1 win. The high-point man for our team was Captain Doug Dickson with 476 points for the evening.

We would do a whole lot better if we had more players turning out every Wednesday night. Come on, you bowlers, let's see you get out and help!

This should be a mighty interesting year sportswise, what with the colleges playing football without offensive and defensive units; the PCL functioning without working agreements or major league options; Rocky Marciano defending his newly won heavyweight championship; and the ever-powerful New York Yankees seeking their fifth-in-a-row American League and World Series Championships.

And, of course, there'll still be Marilyn Monroe.

Boy Scout News

Boy Scout Troop 2, sponsored by St. Rita's Church, recently spent a weekend at Mt. Baldy. There was plenty of fun in the snow, but some of the boys complained about having no "High Hats" for targets.

First Class Scout Paulus received an award for cooking. One of his creations was a cake.

The troop had the privilege of attending the first Mass on Mt. Baldy. Arrangements have been made by the San Gabriel Mission so that hereafter Mass will be offered every Sunday.

Leaders were Assistant Scoutmaster Larry Weber and Committee Chairman Lou Civeroli.

PRO-AMERICA BOARD EVENT

The executive board of the Foothill Towns unit of Pro-America made plans for a ways and means bridge and canasta tournament at a meeting Monday in the Arcadia home of Mrs. Edward A. Heiss, vice-chairman.

Further plans will be discussed at the next meeting of the unit Feb. 16 at 10 a.m. in Sierra Madre, the address to be announced.

FIRE FLAMES

At about 6:30 p.m. Saturday evening, just when most residents, including the firemen, were eating dinner, the fire alarm sounded (and how) and a fire call to the home of Henry Johnson, 90 E. Sierra Madre boulevard, was answered by 21 members of the fire department. Not much water was needed to extinguish the fire, but to the dismay of the Johnsons, the roast in the oven was beyond recognition. It looked more like a shriveled mummy in a tent show.

Hardly had Fred Richter of the fire department returned the truck to the station to get back to his warmed up dinner, when again the alarm sounded. Once more Fred was first to the throttle and away, this time to the area of Brookside Lane in the Canyon. A long run and always an anxious one, Fred drove through the narrow lanes only to find that a smart resident had made good use of the ever-faithful garden hose and had the fire under control.

Once more we yell "Hooray" for the good old garden hose! It has been advised time after time that residents have a reliable hose ready at all times. They have done wonders. This fire was started amid storage in a workshop and little damage was reported.

So many of the active firemen have recently become fathers, that we have had enough cigars at the meetings to necessitate hanging the clothes on the outdoor clothesline. No reflections on glorious cabbage.

Several of the mechanically inclined members have undertaken to repair and beautify our lighting plant that is used for emergency lighting. Such equipment if not properly cared for and used occasionally can deteriorate to uselessness. They have built a special place on the truck for it and after cleaning and painting, it should be an additional attraction.

The much talked of drill uniforms are now expected. These are supposed to add appearance and comfort to the weekly drills and to get us away from wearing all the old clothes found in the basement. A casual remark by an onlooker instigated the move for better drills and nicer looking firemen. And knowing there is not too much wrong with the looks, it was decided that after all, clothes MUST make the man. Wait and see.

And now if we look around the incinerator, we will find that mother nature is spreading grass and weeds. If we want to keep the space around the burner clean, it is much easier to do so now than later.

Professor John Hart once owned and operated a winery in what is now (remodeled) the Park House in the City Park.

AND SPEND MOST OF IT IN THEIR HOME TOWN!

There are Pacific Electric employees (more than most people realize) living in each of the 125 Southland communities served by their company. Regardless of where passenger or freight assignments may take them, Pacific Electric workers spend the biggest part of their paycheck in the area in which they live. Very likely, there's a Pacific Electric family in your neighborhood—patronizing local stores, paying taxes and contributing to the prosperity of their community.

SCHOOL CHILDREN WARNED ABOUT 'SUGAR BOWL' PETE

Congressman Hiestand Elected to Banking and Currency Committee

A recent announcement of Congressional Committee includes one of importance to the citizens of the San Gabriel Valley. That is the election of Congressman Edgar W. Hiestand of the new 21st District, which includes Sierra Madre, to the important Banking and Currency Committee. It has been an unusual thing for a so-called "Freshman" Congressman to make any one of two or three committees of senior importance.

Congressman Hiestand, however, an avowed foe of socialism, was able to convince the members of the committee that he could do more good on this assignment than on several of lesser importance since this committee, in the opinion of many, will have more to do with combating socialism than any other.

Its responsibilities include legislation regarding banking and currency generally, of course, but also financial aid to commerce and industry, deposit insurance, public and private housing.

In his campaign Hiestand had emphatically stated his opinions about the socialistic tendencies of this country in the past 20 years and the conviction that one of the several methods of combating it was the establishment of sound money. Accordingly he is highly gratified at his appointment to this very important committee.

WISCONSIN PICNIC

All Sierra Madreans who are natives of Wisconsin are invited to the Wisconsin Association's "Mid-Winter Picnic" Saturday, Feb. 14, at Sycamore Grove Park, Los Angeles.

CITIZENS ARGUE

The Committee of the Whole, meaning that individual members of the council will inspect the Davis property in question to decide the matter at a later date.

The swimming pool controversy arose when petitioners who are neighbors of Mrs. Maynard Bell, 419 E. Highland, claimed that the pool's location 13 feet from the sidewalk might lure small children to their deaths. Represented by David Wood who spoke at the meeting, the neighbors ask that Mrs. Bell be forced to build a wall to keep children away from the pool.

Mrs. Bell answered by saying she already had told her neighbors that a wall would be built, but that she was in no position to hurry the contractor. She claimed that, in the meantime, the pool was seldom unattended and that she believed the initial responsibility of the children belonged to the parents.

When the council instructed City Attorney Cornyn to investigate the legal position of the controversy, Wood stated that a lawyer already investigating could find no state law related to the case, but he believed that the increase of swimming pools would make such a law a necessity to public safety.

Other subjects on the crowded agenda included the granting of sick leave pay to City Hall personnel, on the basis of one day per month from time of employment, with the maximum not to exceed 30 days.

Also, the local jail will be improved with new protective and locking devices to cost no more than $250; and the adjustment with Sierra Madre City School on recreation expense for fiscal year ending June 30, 1952, was granted.

Sierra Madre school children have been warned against "Sugar Bowl" Pete by the Second District Dental Society in preparation for the Fourth Annual National Children's Dental Health Day, which, according to the society, will be proclaimed by President Eisenhower Feb. 2.

"Sugar Bowl" Pete is a 2-pop-bottled gun, candy-faced bandit whose hat is made of white bread. He is wanted for "stealing" and bears a further description as follows: Chewing gum eyebrows, gumdrop eyes, cake nose, pie mustache, and cookie ears; he smokes a candy stick cigar, wears a doughnut ring on his bandana, and his guns are nothing but loaded pop bottles.

He is accused of robbing children of good health and beautiful teeth. In cooperation with the dental health program, Miss Betty Wilson, teacher at City School, and School Nurse Hortense Wells, were accompanied by Dr. Milton Valois to a symposium, Jan. 15, at Harbeson Hall, PCC, sponsored by the Council on Dental Health of Southern California.

In the dental hygiene program that will be stressed at City School it will be pointed out that proper diet is important to good teeth. According to dental authorities, all the dentists in the nation would be unable to fill all the cavities now existing in children's teeth even if the dentists did nothing else.

MRS. CARLSON TO HOLD WCTU MEET

The Harter Union, W.C.T.U., will be entertained at the home of Mrs. A. F. Carlson, 77 S. Lima, on Thursday, Jan. 29, at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Weaver will act as co-hostess. All persons interested are invited to attend.

Mrs. Nelle L. Vieira, president of the Harter Union, will resume her duties since recovering from a serious illness.

elders and deacons of Bethany Church had little opportunity to fully consider the announcement of the pastor's intention to resign at the time it was first presented, and inasmuch as the official board is merely the representative and hence the servant of the people; therefore because of requests by members of the congregation, and after due consideration on our part, both individually and unitedly, we respectfully request our pastor to reconsider his announcement of intention to resign at the forthcoming annual meeting, and to remain in the pastorate to which we believe the Lord has called him for the year 1953.

Mr. Rood stated that "I have never worked with a group of people for whom I have a greater love and respect than the friends who make up the fellowship of Bethany Church here in Sierra Madre. These have been two happy years of service with a people to whom I owe a deep debt of gratitude. They have showered us with expressions of love and the decision to leave Sierra Madre and the friends of Bethany was the most difficult of my ministerial experience."

Rev. and Mrs. Rood, together with their son, Richard, will begin their ministry in the northern state, Sunday, Mar. 8. They conclude their ministry locally on Feb. 15.

Dr. George Ladd, professor of New Testament at Fuller Theological Seminary, will act as supply minister, beginning his ministry on Sunday, Feb. 22.

Cable for Conversations

Before cable was invented telephone conversations were carried entirely over wires strung on poles in the open with many streets in the larger cities clouded by their density.

Poles rose in height to 40 feet, then to 60, 70, 80. The highest pole line of all was built along West Street in New York City—every pole a towering Norway pine, its top 90 feet above the street; the line carrying 30 cross-arms and 300 wires.

Telephone cable, which is now taking the place of the unsightly cloud of wires, is a tube of lead containing many pairs of wires, the size of cable most frequently in use varying from a twenty-five pair tube to a giant containing 1,200 pairs.

Cable is one of the chief components of the outside plant of a telephone system—a piece of equipment which must be available before service can be extended from a central office to newly developed territory.
